

Chairs

---

Rev Nims Obunge
MBE DL

Nims is Senior Pastor of Freedom's Ark and CEO of The Peace Alliance. He is also a member of the Knife and Violent Crime Prevention Group. He has chaired the London Criminal Justice Partnership Advisory Board and the Metropolitan Police Operation Blunt response to knife crime and was a member of the Home Office Stop and Search Community Group and the Metropolitan Police Stop and Search Scrutiny Panel.

Baroness Stroud

Philippa is the CEO of the Legatum Institute, and a member of the House of Lords. Previously, she was a Special Adviser in Government and Chief Executive of the Centre for Social Justice (CSJ), a think tank that she co-founded in 2004. Philippa's life and career to date have been strongly influenced by her passion to tackle poverty and social breakdown.

Commissioners

---

Alexander McLean

Alexander is the founder and director general of Justice Defenders, which provides high-quality legal advice, education and training to prison inmates and staff in Kenya and Uganda. The project aims to improve the justice systems of those two countries so that people who are accused of crimes are more likely to get a fair hearing.

David Akinluyi

David Akinluyi is the director of data mining company np2ltd and np2apps which produces mobile apps for businesses. He is a member of ChristChurch London and is captain of Nigeria's rugby 7s and 15s.

David Wesson

David trained at Arthur Andersen and learned how to do business at Virgin, where he was Trading Director at Virgin Retail. After working in the commercial sector for 25 years, he moved to City Gateway, and will be joining the Legatum Institute as Managing Director in Autumn 2020.

Dia Chakravarty

Dia is the Brexit Editor of the Daily Telegraph. Previously, she was political director of the Taxpayers Alliance.

Mak Chishty

Mak was the highest-ranking British Police Chief of Pakistani heritage and Muslim faith, and a Commander in the Metropolitan Police, with responsibility for North and West London. He was awarded the Queen's Police Medal in 2009 for Distinguished Service following 30 years of policing experience at the forefront of national and international policing.

Mat Ilic

Mat is Chief Development Officer at Catch22, a not for profit business with a social mission. He leads communications, partnerships and business development teams to ensure that Catch22's strategic direction and development activity is aligned as to maximise social impact. Before joining Catch22, Mat spent two years at No10 Downing Street as Special Adviser to Prime Minister Theresa May.

Russell Rook

Russell is a founding partner of the Good Faith Partnership. Having previously served The Salvation Army, Labour Party and numerous social enterprises and charities, Russell now works with politicians, governments, faith communities, NGOs and civil society groups on a range of issues including, migration, social justice and religious freedom.

Sam Akinluyi

Sam is an Executive coach with Executive Coaching Consultancy, with an expertise in developing leaders and working parents.

Sarah Ebanja

Sarah is the Chief Executive of the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation. Prior to this role, she worked for over 20 years at senior level in local and regional government including roles at the London Boroughs of Lewisham, Hackney and Islington, and as Deputy Chief Executive of the London Development Agency.

Tim Campbell

Tim Campbell, who was awarded the MBE for Enterprise Culture in the 2012 New Year's Honours List, is the founder of his own entrepreneurial social enterprise, Bright Ideas Trust, small business owner and co-author of one of Amazon's Top 10 business books for 2010, 'What's Your Bright Idea?'.

Toni Fola Alade

Toni has recently graduated from studying Politics and International Relations at St John's College, University of Cambridge. He was the President of Cambridge University African-Caribbean Society 2018-19 and co-founded the Motherland Conference which hosted the Vice President of Malawi, Vice Chancellor of Cambridge University, Stormzy and many other notable leaders.